To Whom it may concern:

I am writing to wholeheartedly recommend David Mehoves. He has been working as a Musical Director at Royal Caribbean International for over 5 years with great success.

Here at Royal Caribbean, the Musical Director has several duties both administrative and performance-related. David is responsible for maintaining the level of the orchestra in the main theater, strategically scheduling musicians in various venues around the ship (keeping revenue and performance ratings in mind), and compliance with company policies, including training, safety duties, and the overall guest experience. David has not only accomplished all of this, he has done it with ease.

I have met few people with such passion for their work. I often return to the office in the morning to find a message from David about his latest project or idea. I am more than confident that he will be an asset to you and/or your organization.

“David has played a big part in the overall success of the cruise division this year. David leads a wonderful orchestra who often steal the show. Our guest entertainers often comment on the professionalism of our orchestra, which can be largely attributed to the leadership of David. It has been a pleasure to work with him the last 3 years!”

“Coming from a classical opera and Broadway background, I have worked with many talented arrangers, but no one understood and cleaned up my arrangements like David.”

“I wanted to personally thank David for the excellent job he did for Soul Satisfaction as music director on the Navigator of the Seas. After working with so many band directors it was a pleasure to work with a band director so professional. He made the group feel at ease and comfortable in rehearsal and on the evening of the show itself. He really knew how to get the most of his musicians which led to an enjoyable and successful show for us too.”
